

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 10-23-22

CONNECT:

- Nathan begins with a story of a man preparing a meal for a traveler. Share with the group your favorite and least favorite meals. What do you enjoy eating that you think most people in the group wouldn't?

GROW:

- What stood out to you the most from this week's text or message and why?

- Why do you think David is moved by the injustice of Nathan's story but not the injustice of his own actions? What can we potentially learn about human nature (and ourselves) from that answer?

- What principles or truths do you try to bear in mind when offering criticism or when receiving criticism? When confronting or when being confronted? How can these things go terribly wrong?

- Nathan reminded David of his ingratitude toward God for His many blessings. This was at the root of his sinful actions. What do you do to intentionally foster a spirit of gratitude in yourself and, to the extent possible, in others?

SERVE:

Consider ways to serve someone in your Life Group this week or how your Life Group can serve someone else this week.

MULTIPLY:

What is one practical thing you can do this week to foster real repentance in yourself and others? How can your Life Group help you in this by way of accountability or counsel?
