FROM GRIEF TO GLORY 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18

Death is a constant reality. In fact, some 65 people died in the 50 seconds it took us to watch the intro video before the sermon. That's 5000 human beings stepping into eternity every hour - hour after hour.

The result of that is innumerable tears, abounding grief, paralyzing confusion, and deep despair.

But not so for the Christ-follower. The apostle Paul assures us that there is a grand reunion coming. Jesus will step back into this reality and, with the cry of command, call us to "come up here!" And the dead in Christ will rise and we who are alive will join them.

Therefore, we should grieve, but not as those who have no hope.

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 4-19-26

CONNECT

This week's text takes us from grief and the grave to the joy and glory of heaven. With that said, what was your first experience with death? Who was it? How old were you? How did it affect you?

GROW

- What stood out the most to you from this week's service, text, or message and why?
- What are the benefits of godly grief and how would you define that? What are the dangers of overwhelming grief and how do you protect your heart from it?
- How should the imminent rapture of the Church impact your life today? What do you look forward to most about the rapture, seeing Jesus, and being with Him in heaven and why?
- This world is obviously and painfully broken. Does that make you want to flee it or fix it? How might each of those two mindsets affect how a Christian lives in the world and why?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week in response to the fact that Jesus is coming again to call the Church to Himself? How can your Life Group help you with this?
