WAKE UP!

1 THESSALONIANS 5:6-11

This week, we are concluding the second message concerning the Day of the Lord and how the Christ-follower ought to respond to that coming reality. Paul instructs the Thessalonian believers to be vigilant and clear thinking as they engage in their urgent service to King Jesus in the time that they have.

It's been nearly 2000 years since then and many Christians seem to have spiritually fallen asleep as if they don't believe that Jesus is really coming back.

If you know that He keeps His promises, then you will armor up, shake off your apathy, yoke up with the willing warriors around you, and run to the fight because you're convinced it's time for the Church to wake up!

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS 5-10-26

CONNECT

Paul instructs the Thessalonians to put on a breastplate and a helmet to guard their heart and mind. With that said, what is the strangest, funniest, or most uncomfortable thing you've ever worn and why?

GROW

- What stood out the most to you from this week's service, text, or message and why?
- How does the Gospel guard the heart and mind of the Christ-follower from discouragement, doubt, despair, laziness, apathy, and fear?
- What does it look like in your life to be armored up and on mission fighting the good fight of faith on a regular basis? What happens to the world when the Church sleeps instead of works?
- How can you, as a Christ-follower, come alongside another believer and strengthen them in faith, hope, and love? Why is mutual encouragement essential to successfully living the Christian life?

MULTIPLY

What is one practical thing you can do this week to get in the spiritual fight that rages around us? How can your Life Group help you with this?
