THE RHYTHM OF WORSHIP

PSALM 66:1-20

Every human being has been divinely wired to worship. The problem is that sin has so utterly corrupted our heart that the last one we naturally want to worship is the very One who is infinitely worthy of it.

With that said, once that same heart is transformed by the glory of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, right worship is restored. Therefore, worship ought to be a natural part of the Christian life.

But that raises several questions, what does Biblical worship look like? Does worship only mean singing?

This week we will explore the why and the how of worship and it is our prayer that worship becomes like breathing. That is, it's the most natural and most frequent thing you do.
