- What one aspect of the service, text, or message stood out the most to you and why?
- Jesus had many fans the day He rode into Jerusalem, but very few followers. How would you define the difference between a fan and a follower of Jesus Christ? How would you define Biblical worship and its place and purpose in a Christian's life?
- Not everyone wants to see the Biblical Jesus. What are some common misconceptions people have about Jesus and His mission? If someone were to ask you to describe Him, what words would you use and why?
- Jesus rode into Jerusalem "humble and mounted on a donkey." What can you learn and apply to your own life from His example?
