An Imposter Who Seeks to Sit on a Stolen Throne!

The antichrist is known by many names in the Bible – the Little Horn (Daniel 7:8), the Man of Lawlessness and the Son of Destruction (2 Thessalonians 2:8), the Abomination of Desolation (Matthew 24:15), and the Beast of the Sea (Revelation 11:7, 13:1-10). But no matter what name he goes by, he remains a servant of Satan and stands in opposition to the one true Christ of God, Jesus of Nazareth.

The Bible reveals that he will be a military genius (Revelation 13:3-4). A great politician and orator (Revelation 13:5), an economic czar controlling global commerce (Revelation 13:16-17), and a religious leader (2 Thessalonians 2:3). He will also be history's greatest loser (Revelation 19:19-20).

The term "antichrist" derives from the Greek meaning "against" or "in place of" the anointed one, Jesus the Christ. Deception constitutes the primary activity of the antichrist across nearly every Biblical context mentioning him.

His identity will be revealed because, after the Rapture, or the sudden removal of the true Church of Jesus Christ from the world (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18), he will:

- Sign a seven-year peace treaty with the nation of Israel which he will break three and half years into it (Daniel 9:27). At that time, he will enter the rebuilt temple in Jerusalem and declare himself to be God (Matthew 24:15).
- He will have a mortal wound that was healed and he will be demonically empowered (Revelation 13:3-4).
- He will also compel the nations to take his mark to buy and sell goods (Revelation 13:16-18). You must not take this mark. It might save your mortal life, but it will condemn you to hell forever (Revelation 14:9-11).

Ultimately, the antichrist will be cast into the Lake of Fire to suffer the eternal wrath of God (Revelation 19:20). You have been warned. Flee to Jesus while you can (John 3:16-21, Romans 3:9-26, Ephesians 2:1-10).

An Imposter Who Seeks to Sit on a Stolen Throne!

The antichrist is known by many names in the Bible – the Little Horn (Daniel 7:8), the Man of Lawlessness and the Son of Destruction (2 Thessalonians 2:8), the Abomination of Desolation (Matthew 24:15), and the Beast of the Sea (Revelation 11:7, 13:1-10). But no matter what name he goes by, he remains a servant of Satan and stands in opposition to the one true Christ of God, Jesus of Nazareth.

The Bible reveals that he will be a military genius (Revelation 13:3-4). A great politician and orator (Revelation 13:5), an economic czar controlling global commerce (Revelation 13:16-17), and a religious leader (2 Thessalonians 2:3). He will also be history's greatest loser (Revelation 19:19-20).

The term "antichrist" derives from the Greek meaning "against" or "in place of" the anointed one, Jesus the Christ. Deception constitutes the primary activity of the antichrist across nearly every Biblical context mentioning him.

His identity will be revealed because, after the Rapture, or the sudden removal of the true Church of Jesus Christ from the world (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18), he will:

- Sign a seven-year peace treaty with the nation of Israel which he will break three and half years into it (Daniel 9:27). At that time, he will enter the rebuilt temple in Jerusalem and declare himself to be God (Matthew 24:15).
- He will have a mortal wound that was healed and he will be demonically empowered (Revelation 13:3-4).
- He will also compel the nations to take his mark to buy and sell goods (Revelation 13:16-18). You must not take this mark. It might save your mortal life, but it will condemn you to hell forever (Revelation 14:9-11).

Ultimately, the antichrist will be cast into the Lake of Fire to suffer the eternal wrath of God (Revelation 19:20). You have been warned. Flee to Jesus while you can (John 3:16-21, Romans 3:9-26, Ephesians 2:1-10).