

Bible Reading Plans

Choose one plan that fits your season of life. Set a daily time and begin.

READ • REFLECT • RESPOND

Read the passage. Ask what it teaches about God and how you should respond. Choose one action and pray about what you read.

1 Start Here

Seven days with Jesus | New readers | About 5–10 minutes daily

Read one passage each day: Day 1 John 1:1–18; Day 2 Mark 1:14–20; Day 3 Luke 15:11–32; Day 4 Mark 2:1–17; Day 5 Matthew 6:5–15; Day 6 Luke 23:32–49; Day 7 John 20:1–31.

Ask: What did I discover about Jesus today?

2 Know Jesus

John in 21 days | Knowing Christ more deeply | About 10–15 minutes daily

Read one chapter of John each day. Day 1 = John 1, Day 2 = John 2, and so on through Day 21 = John 21.

Ask: What does this chapter show me about Jesus, and how will I respond?

3 Wisdom for Life

Proverbs in 31 days | Practical daily wisdom | About 5–10 minutes daily

Read one chapter of Proverbs each day. Day 1 = Proverbs 1; continue through Day 31 = Proverbs 31. Begin any day. Read these sayings as wisdom about life, rather than unconditional guarantees.

Ask: Which principle should shape a decision I make today?

4 Follow Christ

The New Testament in 90 days | Growing disciples | About 15–20 minutes daily

Read three chapters daily, from Matthew through Revelation in order. Day 1 = Matthew 1–3; Day 2 = Matthew 4–6. Continue into the next book when needed. Finish with Revelation 21–22 on Day 87. Use Days 88–90 to catch up or review.

Ask: What does this teach me about living as a disciple of Jesus?

5 The Big Picture

The whole Bible in one year | The full biblical story | About 20–30 minutes daily

Read four chapters Monday–Saturday, from Genesis through Revelation in order. Begin with Genesis 1–4, then 5–8, then 9–12. Use Sundays to catch up and reflect. Continue across book boundaries. Finish during Week 50, with extra time for interruptions.

Ask: What does this reveal about God and His dealings with people?
