

Mission Trip to Nebaj, Guatemala: March 13 – 20, 2027

Coordinated by Living Word Community Church

Join us for an unforgettable week of serving, learning, and growing in faith as we travel to Nebaj, Guatemala - a community we have supported for nearly two decades. Ideal participants include young adults, parent with teenage child, and individuals desiring to experience their first mission trip.

What you will experience:

- Participate in construction projects (no experience required) that directly bless local families and ministries.
- Engage with village children through fun, meaningful educational activities.
- Immerse yourself in a vibrant culture and witness firsthand how God is at work in Guatemala.
- Strengthen your faith, deepen relationships, and be part of a life-changing global mission experience.

Trip Details:

- Team size: minimum 15, maximum 21 participants.
- Departure goal: Early morning, March 13, from Living Word → Dulles International Airport.
- Return: Evening of March 20 to Living Word.
- Lodging: Mountain Springs Camp in Nebaj - a beautiful retreat center hosted by longtime partners Mike and Terri McComb.
