Early Arriver Activity
Providing Time for Fun Interaction

1. Celebration Blowers
Made to Play

What You Need:
- Craft tubes
- Ball pit balls
- Party blowers
- Table
- Permanent marker

What You Do:
Before the Activity: Set the craft tubes upright on the table in a straight line. Place a ball pit ball on top of each tube. Write each child's name on a party blower.

During the Activity: Encourage children to use their party blowers to knock the ball pit balls off the tubes. Reset, then have several children line up in front of the ball pit balls and all blow their blowers at the word Go! Reset and repeat as time and interest allow.

After the Activity: Introduce the Bible Story.

What You Say:
Before the Activity: "Come over to our game table! People love to use party blowers when they have a big party. (Give each child a party blower.)"

During the Activity: "Look at these ball pit balls balancing on our tubes. Let's play a party game with them! Stand at the edge of the table and blow your party horn at the ball pit balls to try and knock them off the tubes! You can't touch them with your hands, only with your blower.

"Ready? Put the horn to your mouth and blow! (Allow children to blow their blower several times.) Look, you knocked the ball pit balls off! Great job! Freeze your party blowers and help me stand the tubes back up and put the ball pit balls on top. (Pause.) Great! Now keep your party blowers frozen until I say go. I want [child's names] to line up in front of a ball pit ball. (Help position each of the children.) Okay, when I say go, I want you to unfreeze your party blowers and try to knock the ball off your tube. Ready, set, GO! (Allow children to blow their blower several times.) Wow! That was a fun party game! (Reset and repeat as time and interest allow.)"

After the Activity: "That was some loud and happy celebrating! In our Bible Story today, King David's people played real trumpets and made a joyful noise to celebrate God. Let's go find out what they were celebrating!"

Hear from God | Memory Verse Review
Made to Imagine

What You Need:
- Toy megaphone
- Toy microphone
- Painter's tape

Note: You can find examples of hand motions in the "Memory Verse Hand Motions" PDF and video, and on Pinterest.

What You Do:
Before the Activity: Create a three-foot by four-foot rectangle with tape on the floor in your activity area. Say the Memory Verse while you do the motions together with the children.

During the Activity: Encourage one child at a time to go on the "stage" and shout 'Shout aloud' through the megaphone, and sing 'and sing for joy' into the microphone. Let each child repeat it a few times. Continue with each child.

After the Activity: Connect the Memory Verse to the Bottom Line.

What You Say:
Before the Activity: "Friends, come stand with me! Let's say our Memory Verse and do the motions together. Ready? 'Shout aloud (cup hands by mouth) and sing for joy (brush hands upward on chest),' Isaiah 12:6. (Open hands like a book.) Let's do it again. 'Shout aloud (cup hands by mouth) aloud and sing for joy (brush hands upward on chest),' Isaiah 12:6. (Open hands like a book.) Great job!"

During the Activity: "Now we are going to let each friend go on stage to shout and sing our Memory Verse like this. Watch me! (Hold up the megaphone.) 'Shout aloud' (hold up the microphone) 'and sing for joy.' [Child's name] come on stage and give it a try! (Pause.) Wow! Great job! One more time! (Pause.) Fantastic! Now let's have [child's name] take a turn! (Continue with each child.) Wow! You all sounded amazing!"

After the Activity: "You did a fantastic job shouting and singing on our stage! No matter how we do it, we can always use our voices to show God how much we love Him. You can celebrate God, and [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God! Who can celebrate God? [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God!"

2. Confetti Horn of Thanks

Live for God | Application Activity
Made to Think

Uses Minimal Supplies

What You Need:

- “Confetti Horn of Thanks” Activity Page
- Cardstock
- Crayons or washable markers
- Permanent marker

What You Do:
Before the Activity: Print “Confetti Horn of Thanks” on cardstock, one per child. Write each child’s name on their paper.

During the Activity: Encourage children to name different things they can celebrate and thank God for. Write each child’s answers on the strips of confetti coming from the horn. Continue with each child.

After the Activity: Connect the Bottom Line to the Bible Story.

What You Say:
Before the Activity: “King David told the musicians, ‘Give thanks to God because He is good!’ Let’s make our own special confetti horns and talk about the things we can celebrate and thank God for.”

During the Activity: “Color the picture of your confetti horn. I’m going to come around and ask each of you to name some things you want to celebrate and thank God for. [Child’s name], tell me some things you are thankful for and what to celebrate God for. (Clearly write the different people, things, and places each child lists in the different pieces of streamer on their page.) Wow! Those things are worth celebrating! (Continue with each child.) Your Confetti Horns look amazing! They are full of all the wonderful things we can thank God for.”

After the Activity: “We can celebrate God in the morning when the sun comes up, and we can celebrate God at night when the stars are twinkling in the sky. We can celebrate God all the time. Who can celebrate God? [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God.”

EveryChild Pro-Tips:

- Some children may struggle to think of what they want to thank God for. Have simple picture cards of common blessings (a house, a plate of food, a heart, a family, toy blocks) that they can point to as ideas.

5. Journal and Prayer

Pray to God | Prayer Activity
Made to Reflect

Uses Minimal Supplies

What You Need:

- ☐ "Memory Verse Card" from Week One in Bible
- ☐ Journal
- ☐ Reward stickers or hand stamp

Note: You can find examples of hand motions in the "Memory Verse Hand Motions" PDF and video, and on Pinterest.

What You Do:
Before the Activity: If you do not have the "Memory Verse Card," print it on cardstock and place it in your Bible at Isaiah 12:6.

Encourage the children to clap their hands as you lead them to your Small Group spot. Sit down and gather the children around you.

During the Activity: Review the Bible Story and the Memory Verse Hand Motions. Ask the children to tell you their favorite way to celebrate and make a list in the journal.

After the Activity: Pray with the children using the list you made in the journal.

What You Say:
Before the Activity: "It's Small Group time! Our Bible Story says that King David brought back the special box, and everyone celebrated! King David even danced with all his might. Let's clap and celebrate God as we walk to our Small Group spot. Here we are! One, two, three, sit down with me!"

During the Activity: (Open the Bible and lay it in front of the children.) "In our Bible Story today, King David threw a big celebration. He was bringing a special golden box called the ark of the covenant back home. The ark was a special way for God's people to know that God was with them. Some people shouted to celebrate God. Others played trumpets. And King David danced with all his might! David knew that praising God was an important job. So David gave some people a special job. He wanted them to sing and play music to celebrate God. David wanted them to make music to God every day! There are many ways we can celebrate God! Who can celebrate God? [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God!

"The Bible verse we are learning helps us remember that we sing and shout for joy to celebrate God for everything! It says: 'Shout aloud (cup hands by mouth) and sing for joy (brush hands upward on chest),' Isaiah 12:6. (Open hands like a book.) Great job, everyone! We can use our voice to sing, shout, and celebrate God! Who can celebrate God? [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God. That was wonderful! (Two thumbs up.) I think you're ready to say that verse all by yourself. I want everyone to sit down, and we will take turns saying it. Who wants to go first? I have a sticker/stamp for everyone who tries to say the Bible verse! (Hold up stamp/stickers.) Way to go, [child's name]! (Give two thumbs up.) You get a stamp/sticker! (Say and do this with each child as they try to say the Bible verse.) I'm very proud of you for trying to say that Bible verse. When I count to three, I want everyone to stand up and point to your stamp/sticker. One, two, three! (Pause to look.) Yay! (Clap.)

(Open journal.) “King David was so happy that God loved him, he danced and made music to celebrate Him. He wanted to celebrate God every single day! We can celebrate God all the time, too. Let’s write in our prayer journal. When I say your name, tell me how you like to celebrate God. Do you like to sing, or dance, or play music? Tell me your favorite way, and I will write it down! (Continue with each child. Remember to print, as you write in the journal, so the children can recognize their names and the letters.)”

After the Activity: (Hold up the journal.) “This page in our journal is filled with so many wonderful ways we can celebrate God! Let’s pray and talk to God and thank Him for everything He gives us. Would anyone like to pray before I pray? (Give each child who wants to pray the opportunity to do so.)

“Dear God, thank You for making us so we can celebrate You! We love to celebrate You in so many ways. Today, [child’s name] wants to celebrate You by (read the list from the journal) dancing, and [child’s name] wants to celebrate You by (read the list from the journal). We love You, God, and we want to celebrate You all the time. We love You. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”
