

Never Again Will I Confess

- Never again will I confess that I can't do something when God's Word says I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me (Philippians 4:13).
- Never again will I confess lack when my God supplies all my needs according to His riches in glory (Philippians 4:19).
- Never again will I confess fear because God hasn't given me a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7).
- Never again will I confess worry and anxiety because I choose to cast all my cares upon the Lord, for He cares for me (1 Peter 5:7).
- Never again will I confess sickness over my life because by His stripes I was healed (1 Peter 2:24).
- Never again will I confess that the world has power over me. (1 John 4:4) "You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world."
- Never again will I confess that I can't remember- (John 14:26) "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you."
- Never will I confess defeat. (2 Corinthians 2:14) "But thanks be to God, who always leads us as captives in Christ's triumphal procession and uses us to spread the aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere."
- Never will I confess that I am a sinner and just can't help sinning. (2 Corinthians 5:17) "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! "
- Never will I confess that I don't know how to share the Gospel. (2 Corinthians 3:2-3) " Your very lives are a letter that anyone can read by just looking at you. Christ himself wrote it—not with ink, but with God's living Spirit; not chiseled into stone, but carved into human lives—and we publish it."
