Small Group Discussion Questions

Getting Started

Take some time to catch up and connect as a group. Pray before discussion.

Expect God to move through your time together!

Pacing Your Group

Move quickly through "observation" leaving enough time for "reflection", "discussion", and "surrender."

Scripture Reading

Re-read the scripture passages as needed when you discuss the questions.

Observation: What do the scripture passages say? Read Hebrews 4:14-5:10

1. Hebrews 4:14–16: What does the author tell believers about Jesus as our High Priest, and what two responses does he call us to make?
2. Hebrews 5:1–6: What were the responsibilities and limitations of the Old Testament high priests? How does Jesus compare with them?
3. Hebrews 4:15 and 5:7–10: What do these verses reveal about Jesus' humanity, his experience of suffering and temptation, and his obedience?

Reflection and Discussion: What are some first thoughts flowing from the scriptures? How do the scriptures connect to everyday life?

4. Holding fast: Hebrews 4:14 calls us to hold fast to our confession. What circumstances or pressures make it difficult for you to hold on to Jesus? What does holding fast look like in those situations?

5. Being understood: Jesus sympathizes with our weaknesses and understands what it costs to obey through suffering. How should knowing this change the way you approach him when you're struggling, afraid, or facing temptation?

6. Approaching boldly: Hebrews 4:16 invites us to approach God's throne of grace with boldness. What tends to keep you from approaching God confidently? How does Jesus being our High Priest challenge those barriers?

7. Marveling versus trusting: It's possible to be impressed by Jesus without actually trusting him. Where might you be relying on your own goodness, religious knowledge, or spiritual performance rather than on what Jesus has accomplished? What would it look like to trust him more fully this week?

Surrender: Responding to God's voice.

8. What is one thing God is saying to you through this study and discussion?

* Take some time to pray for one another in response to what has been discussed today ****
