

Hi everyone,

Have you ever walked into a room and thought, “I don’t think people like me…” Or replayed a conversation later and wondered if you said something wrong? You’re not alone. A lot of us carry that quiet assumption—that we’re on the outside, not quite accepted, not fully known. This Sunday at 10:30am, we’re continuing week 3 of our series ReNEWing Your Mind with a message called:

“People Probably Don’t Like Me”

We’ll take an honest look at how that thought gets formed—and how it quietly shapes the way we show up in relationships. But more importantly, we’ll explore a different way of seeing ourselves through the lens of Scripture:

“In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ.” (Ephesians 1:4–5)

What if you didn’t have to walk into every space wondering if you belong?
What if you could live from a place of already being chosen and loved?

This message is practical, grounded, and especially helpful if you’ve ever felt unsure of where you fit—or if church hasn’t always felt like a safe place. We’d love to have you with us this Sunday at 10:30am. You’re always welcome to come as you are—no pressure, with no expectations. If joining in person isn’t possible, you can watch live or anytime through the DFMC app or at dfmchurch.org.

Hope to see you this weekend.

PS If you know someone who might be encouraged by this, consider inviting them to come with you. Sometimes just having a familiar face makes all the difference.
