

Dear Church Family,

This Sunday in our Lent series, CONNECTING LIKE JESUS, we're looking at one of the most surprising — and honestly, most challenging — things Jesus ever said about forgiveness.

What did He really mean when He connected our forgiveness of others with God's forgiveness of us?

Is God's forgiveness conditional?

And what do we do when forgiveness feels impossible?

Many of us carry hurts we rarely talk about. Some are recent. Some go back years. This week, we'll explore how Jesus speaks into those places — not with pressure or guilt, but with an invitation toward freedom. If you've ever wrestled with letting go of a grudge, healing from disappointment, or moving forward after being hurt, this conversation is for you.

Join us on Sunday at 10:30 AM as we continue the journey together.

Grace and peace,
Pastor Shane
