

Happy Friday!

You ever leave a conversation...and then replay it the whole way home: “I should’ve said that differently.” - “Why did I say that?” - “That sounded weird.”

Most of us know that feeling. This Sunday, we’re continuing our Renewing Your Mind series with a message called:

“I Should Have Said Something Different”

Pastor Kaylee will be teaching from Romans 8:1 and exploring a simple but freeing truth:

The voice of condemnation isn’t the voice of Jesus.

If you’ve ever been stuck replaying a moment... or been hard on yourself after the fact... this message is for you. It’s not about trying harder to get everything right— it’s about discovering how staying close to Jesus begins to change what comes out of us.

Join us this Sunday at 10:30am. Come as you are. Bring a friend if you’d like. There’s a place for you here.
