

Have you ever thought, "I don't really have much of a story to tell"?

Maybe your life hasn't included some dramatic, life-changing moment. Maybe you've followed Jesus for years, but you're not sure how to explain what he's done in your life. Or maybe your story is still full of questions and unfinished chapters.

Here's something worth considering: Your story doesn't have to be extraordinary to be needed. This Sunday at 10:30 AM, we're wrapping up our NEEDED series with a message called "Need Your Story." We'll explore a fascinating encounter in Mark 5, where Jesus changes a man's life and then sends him home with one simple assignment: Tell people what God has done for you.

What if the same invitation applies to us?

PLUS — We're launching something new! We're excited to introduce Storyville: The Place to Find Your God Story. Storyville is a simple, five-week online experience (sync'd to our This is My Story series that begins in November) designed to help you discover your own story through short daily reflection prompts, opportunities to connect with others, and invitations to recognize God's grace in everyday life. You'll have the invitation to join Storyville and get psyched up for our next series: this Sunday at 10:30 AM at Davison Free Methodist Church.

You may discover that the story someone else needs to hear is the one you've been living all along.

See you Sunday!
