

Have you ever built walls around your life?

Maybe to protect yourself from being hurt again. Maybe to hide parts of your story you'd rather forget. Or maybe those walls went up so gradually that you didn't even realize they were there. But what happens when God's grace refuses to leave us hiding behind those walls? This Sunday at 10:30 AM, we're beginning the annual series called This Is My Story. Over the next four weeks, we'll hear real stories from people in our DFMC family—ordinary people sharing how Jesus has met them, changed them, and continues to shape their lives.

This Sunday, Linda Panchula will share her story. Linda will tell us about the walls she built around her life and how she encountered a God whose love wouldn't leave her hidden behind them. Her story reminds us of the promise found in 2 Corinthians 5:17: "If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" God's grace doesn't simply meet us where we are. It invites us into something new.

And perhaps, as we listen to Linda's story, we'll begin recognizing some of the ways God has been working in our own.

Join us Sunday at 10:30 AM at Davison Free Methodist Church.

Come hear Linda's story. And maybe you'll discover something new about your own.

See you Sunday!
