

Happy Friday!

This Sunday, Evan Rose shares his story—from feeling like something was missing, through grief and an uncertain future, to discovering Jesus and finding the courage to walk through the church doors. As Evan puts it: “In my dark times, my life felt monochrome; Jesus provided the color.”

Join us for week two of This Is My Story, an honest conversation about questions, growing faith, and finding peace along the way.

Sunday at 10:30am | Davison Free Methodist Church

You don’t need to have faith figured out to find a place here. Come listen, and invite someone to join you.
Pastor Shane
Shane@dfmchurch.org

PLUS: Have you joined STORYVILLE yet?
Storyville —The Place to Find Your God Story is our new online community designed to help you discover God's grace in your own life. Each weekday, you'll receive a simple reflection prompt to help you remember meaningful experiences, recognize moments of grace, and begin putting words to your story. There's no homework, no pressure to share, and no need to have all the answers. You can join anytime (click here) and pick up your free Storyville journal on Sunday.