MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

March, 2026

Greetings HCC,

Is it well with my soul? As I ask myself this question I realize that my outer world is pretty calm this week. Kathleen and I are getting along. All my immediate family is healthy, employed, and open to God's leading. I like my job, I'm not in a financial pinch, and nothing is broken with our homes or vehicles. Other than the asian beetles that keep invading the inside of my house, things are pretty calm on the outside of me. So when I say that it is well with my soul, I realize that I am in a season where there isn't much testing of that statement. But things don't always stay in a season of calm on the outside.

I'd like to be able to say that it is well with my soul regardless of what is happening around me and as we finish our "How's your soul?" campaign, I think the material we have journeyed through together will help us to say "it is well with my soul" whether the outside factors of our life are calm and turbulent. Let's review the journey:

Q1 When is my soul home?

A1 My soul is home when I return to God.

Q2 When is my soul healthy?

A2 My soul is healthy when it is reborn and has rest, restrictions, responsibility, and relationships.

Q3 Why does my soul have hope?

A3 My soul has hope because it can hope in a loving and powerful God.

Q4 Who does my soul hold onto?

A4 My soul is held onto by Jesus who will guide me through turbulent waters.

CONTINUE...

Q5 How is my soul helped?

A5 My soul is helped by being surrendered to Jesus and surrounded by surrendered people.

Q6 Where is my soul headed?

A6 My soul is headed towards being open to other people.

May it be well with your soul,
John Gillman
