

No Night There

Dan Forrest

From the Composer

Several passages of Scripture (see references on the next page) came together for me in a unique way during Advent and Christmastide 2022 to create this text:

Emmanuel, meaning “God with us”, is not merely a Christmas word; from the very first chapter of the New Testament, to Jesus’ final words on earth, to the final chapters of Revelation, God reminds us, “I am with you”.

“God is for us” - Psalm 118:6 can be translated “God is with us” or “God is for us” - not away from us, or against us, but for us; therefore “I will not fear.” Even in the valley of the shadow of death, we need not be afraid (Psalm 23:4) - why? Because God is with us. I set these words remembering friends currently facing terminal illness.

“Do not be afraid” - All the main characters in the story of Christ’s Incarnation and Nativity - Zechariah, Mary, Joseph, the shepherds - are all told, “Do not be afraid.” The messenger of God himself repeatedly assures trembling and fearful people with words of comfort and hope.

“No night there” - God promises a renewed heaven and earth, and that there will be no night there, no crying there, no pain or death- all of these are gone forever; and in what is one of the most tender phrases ever written, the God who is with us, and for us, will wipe away every tear from our eyes.

These words of comfort were originally conceived for Longest Night services during the Advent and Christmas season, but are equally appropriate in All Saints’ services, in times of mourning or memorial, or anytime throughout the year to offer words of comfort to hurting people, whose pain may or may not be readily apparent.

God is with us. God is for us. Do not be afraid.
