First Things First

Last week I heard a speaker say some words that have been rattling around in my head and my heart. These words made me stop, look in the mirror and examine my commitment to God. I have been a Christian for more than 45 years and a full time minister for more than 35 years. So what could have been said that made me reexamine my entire relationship with God? The speaker was making a confession about his life and he said, "I have always claimed to follow Jesus. But I wonder if I have only asked Jesus to follow me."

We may not want to word it that way but there is some truth to asking Jesus to follow you. With your big life decisions like who you are going to marry, what job you are going to have, where you are going to live and even what church you are going to attend, have you followed Jesus' lead or have you made all of these decisions and asked Jesus to bless them?

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Romans 12:1

When Paul penned these words he truly understood the difference between following Jesus and asking Jesus to follow him. When Paul encountered Jesus on the road to Damascus he was doing everything he could to turn people away from Jesus. Paul could have never envisioned standing before kings and emperors proclaiming the name of Jesus. Paul could not have imagined traveling thousands of miles across land and sea to teach others about Jesus. But once Paul committed his life to Jesus, Paul's plans went out the window. He submitted his life to Christ and allowed Jesus to lead the way.

For many of us that will be a total shift in thinking. Even as committed Christians we are so often guilty of making plans then praying for God to bless "our plans". That is not following Jesus. That is asking Jesus to follow us. When we truly submit to God we realize that the one who is offering their body as a living sacrifice is not the one calling the shots.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6

The order is simple to understand but hard to live. Trust and submission comes first. Then we follow the path.

Phillip

Dear Church

Thank you for the fun-filled mission in being your Childrens' Minister these past few years. I look forward to continue shining Jesus' light into our sweet kiddos. You are in good hands with Damaris. She has experience and she has a great resource in Dakota. I love my EH family.
