Proverbs 13:20

He who walks with the wise grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

Your relationships will determine the quality of your life.

1 Corinthians 15:33-34

Do not be misled: “Bad company corrupts good character.” Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God—I say this to your shame.

Your relationships will determine the quality of your faith.

John 1:43-46

The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, “Follow me.” Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida. Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.” “Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?” Nathanael asked. “Come and see,” said Philip.

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another-- and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Following Jesus requires Christian friendships.

Group Questions

1. Tell a story of how the right person (or the wrong person) showed up in your life at just the right time (or the wrong time). Compare your experiences with Proverbs 13:20.
2. Is there a person who was instrumental in you becoming a Christian? What about a person who helped your faith grow?
3. You may be hesitant to acknowledge it, but have you been the person who helped someone else’s faith grow? Did you hesitate initially? If so, why?
4. Are there people that would benefit from your encouragement on their faith journey? Spend some time in prayer for the people that God has laid on your heart and ask Him for wisdom on how to partner with them.
5. Read Hebrews 10:24-25. What strikes you about these verses?
6. How many New Testament verses can you find about “one anothering” one another in the church. Don’t be afraid to use the Google to find as many as you can. What does the volume of these verses tell us about God’s design for the church?
