Preferred Citation

Jackson Schools Photograph Album, Jackson – Madison County Library, Tennessee Room.

Dates

c.1900 - 1910

Scope and Content

The collection consists of one photo album, 11" X 14", containing 13 (7.5" X 8.75") b/w photographs, each mounted on black board pertaining to Jackson Schools, stitched together with rigid, fabric covered covers.

1 loose (7.75" X 9.25") b/w photo, mounted on white board, pertaining to the Jackson Free Library.

1 loose (7.5" X 11") printed photo (possibly from a published book) pertaining to Alexander School.

Photographs date from general time frame of 1900-1910. Black mat boards are embossed with Moore Studio, Jackson, Tenn. The two loose photos are not embossed, but are implied to be from the same photographer.

After initial processing, it was decided, because of the broken stitching and weight of the album, to separate the album pages into individual photos, since this would result in considerably less stress on the photos. The order in which the photos were positioned in the album, including the front and back covers, was retained in the filing of the photos in folders.
