

The Holy Spirit (continued)

History is divided into two phases. The time before Christ and the time after his death, burial and resurrection. We call them the Old Covenant (Old Age) and the New Covenant (New Age). The Holy Spirit was at work in the Old Age, “the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters” (Gen 1:2).

The Spirit in the Old Age spoke through the prophets. See 2 Peter 2:20-21. The Spirit spoke through Moses and David and Gideon, etc. These were God’s leaders. God worked mightily through people in the Old Testament to have his will done.

But there were also prophecies in the Old that spoke of something great happening in the future, in the New Age to come. Joel 2:28-29: “It will come about after this time that I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind; and your sons and daughters will prophecy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on the male and female servants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.”

John the Baptist promises: “As for me, I will baptize you with water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I...; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” Matt. 3:11. See also, Mark 1:7-8; Luke 3:16; John 1:33.

Jesus promised to the apostles to wait in Jerusalem for “what the father had promised...’ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.” Acts 1:4-5. Also, Acts 1:8.

What does all this mean today? We will answer that next.

TBC.
