

The Holy Spirit (continued next week)

Mary At The Tomb

She came with burial spices
While the heavens were gray.
Heart filled with grief, she pondered
Who will roll the stone away.

But lo, the tomb was open;
The great stone was set aside.
With fearful heart, Mary stooped
And tried to peer inside.

“Why seekest thou the living
Here among the dead?”
She heard the angel say,
“He has risen as He said.”

When Mary saw her blessed Lord
Within the garden fair,
Her heart was filled with rapture
As she knelt and worshipped there.

The words He spoke to Mary
He still speaks to us today:
“Go tell the others that I live.”
The stone rolled away.
