"All Together Now, . . ."
Philippians 4:1-3

1. _____ _____ in the Lord just means _____ like you actually _____ _____ _____. (Philippians 4:1, 2:1-2)

2. We don't all need to agree on everything, but we do need to be _____, and from time to time, we'll need to _____ _____ _____ for the sake of the _____ Christ has given us. (Philippians 4:2, Ephesians 5:21)

3. God calls _____ ___ ___ to use whatever _____ we have to protect and to work for _____ _____ within the church. (Philippians 4:3)

   - Invest in _____.
   - Address _____ quickly, before they become _____.
   - Don't engage in _____.
   - Be willing to have _____, _____ conversations.
   - Focus on trying to _____ the other person's position rather than proving that _____ _____.
   - Aim to be a _____ of peace, not a _____ of conflict.
     - Peacekeeping _____ conflict and _____ the truth in order to keep people _____.
     - Peacemaking pursues the _____ in _____, and seeks genuine _____.
     - The priority in peacekeeping is to avoid upsetting anyone by _____ the _____.
     - The priority with peace*making* is to speak the _____ in _____ with courage and with _____.

4. With just a little _____, we can go from being _____ in the _____ of the church, to being _____ to the same mission. (Phil. 4:3)

5. With just a little _____, we can go from being _____ to the church's mission, to being engaged as _____ _____ to it.

"All Together Now, . . ."
Philippians 4:1-3

1. Standing firm in the Lord just means living like you actually believe the gospel. (Philippians 4:1, 2:1-2)

2. We don't all need to agree on everything, but we do need to be agreeable, and from time to time, we'll need to get over ourselves for the sake of the mission Christ has given us. (Philippians 4:2, Ephesians 5:21)

3. God calls all of us to use whatever influence we have to protect and to work for genuine unity within the church. (Philippians 4:3)

   - Invest in relationships.
   - Address concerns quickly, before they become resentments.
   - Don't engage in gossip.
   - Be willing to have honest, loving conversations.
   - Focus on trying to understand the other person's position rather than proving that you're right.
   - Aim to be a facilitator of peace, not a spectator of conflict.
     - Peacekeeping avoids conflict and ignores the truth in order to keep people comfortable.
     - Peacemaking pursues the truth in love, and seeks genuine reconciliation.
     - The priority in peacekeeping is to avoid upsetting anyone by acknowledging the truth.
     - The priority with peace*making* is to speak the truth in love with courage and with grace.

4. With just a little pride, we can go from being engaged in the mission of the church, to being obstacles to the same mission. (Philippians 4:3)

5. With just a little humility, we can go from being obstacles to the church's mission, to being engaged as valuable contributors to it.

"All Together Now, . . ."
Philippians 4:1-3

1. Standing firm in the Lord just means living like you actually believe the gospel. (Philippians 4:1, 2:1-2)

2. We don't all need to agree on everything, but we do need to be agreeable, and from time to time, we'll need to get over ourselves for the sake of the mission Christ has given us. (Philippians 4:2, Ephesians 5:21)

3. God calls all of us to use whatever influence we have to protect and to work for genuine unity within the church. (Philippians 4:3)

   - Invest in relationships.
   - Address concerns quickly, before they become resentments.
   - Don't engage in gossip.
   - Be willing to have honest, loving conversations.
   - Focus on trying to understand the other person's position rather than proving that you're right.
   - Aim to be a facilitator of peace, not a spectator of conflict.
     - Peacekeeping avoids conflict and ignores the truth in order to keep people comfortable.
     - Peacemaking pursues the truth in love, and seeks genuine reconciliation.
     - The priority in peacekeeping is to avoid upsetting anyone by acknowledging the truth.
     - The priority with peace*making* is to speak the truth in love with courage and with grace.

4. With just a little pride, we can go from being engaged in the mission of the church, to being obstacles to the same mission. (Philippians 4:3)

5. With just a little humility, we can go from being obstacles to the church's mission, to being engaged as valuable contributors to it.

Questions for Life Group Discussion

1. Standing Firm in the Lord: The sermon emphasizes that standing firm in the Lord means living like we actually believe the gospel. What are some practical ways that our daily decisions and attitudes reveal whether we truly believe what the gospel says about us and our future?

2. Finding Joy in Others' Faith: Paul described the Philippian believers as his joy and crown. What kind of joy have you experienced from seeing someone else grow in their faith? How can we become more intentional about encouraging and investing in the spiritual growth of others?

3. Choosing Unity Over Being Right: The sermon reminds us that we don't have to agree on everything, but we do need to be agreeable. Why can it be so difficult to let go of disagreements, even when doing so would serve the greater good of the church? What does it look like to extend God's grace to someone with whom you disagree?

4. Peacemaking vs. Peacekeeping: What happens when we avoid conflict to keep everyone comfortable, rather than pursuing genuine peace through honest conversations? Can you think of a situation in your life where choosing to be a peacemaker has required courage?

5. Our Responsibility for Unity: Paul called on others to help Euodia and Syntyche work through their conflict. What responsibility do we each have to protect and promote unity within the church? What are some practical ways we can help resolve conflict rather than simply watching from the sidelines?

6. Pride, Humility, and the Church's Mission: The sermon points out that a little pride can turn someone from being a valuable contributor to the church's mission into an obstacle to it. What are some subtle ways pride and selfishness can distract us from the mission of the church? How can humility help restore our focus?

7. Being the Church Together: The sermon closes with the reminder that we are called to be the church every day, not just to attend church. What might change in our homes, workplaces, neighborhoods, and relationships if we became more intentional about living as the hands and feet of Jesus? How can our unity make the gospel more visible to those around us?