OBSERVE THE PASSAGE

1. Compare Acts 5:33 and 5:40. What did the council intend, and what happened instead?

2. What did the council command the apostles to stop doing? (Acts 5:40)

3. What reason does Luke give for the apostles' rejoicing? (Acts 5:41)

UNDERSTAND THE MESSAGE

4. What does Gamaliel urge the council to do? Why does a movement's survival alone fail to establish its truth? (Acts 5:38-39)

5. How can we explain the apostles' joy without minimizing their pain? (Acts 5:40-41)

6. How often and where did they teach? What was their message? Which detail challenges you? (Acts 5:42)

RESPOND AND APPLY

7. A man receives fair correction for a mistake at work but calls it persecution. How can he distinguish accountability from opposition to his faith? (Acts 5:40-42)

8. In work, family, friendship, or leadership, where can you honor Jesus through a truthful, gracious response?

9. My next faithful step this week, when I will begin, and someone who can pray with me:

LIFE GROUP REFLECTION

Reflect on faithfulness in daily responsibilities and relationships. You may share, listen, or pass. Keep another person's private details confidential.

10. What insight from another man helped you understand this passage? How could you encourage one another to keep following Jesus?

NEXT CHAPTER: ACTS 6

A Growing Church and a Faithful Witness

6:1 - When Growth Reveals Neglect

6:2-4 - Prayer, the Word, and Shared Service

6:5-7 - Faithful Servants and a Growing Word

6:8-10 - Stephen Speaks with Wisdom and Power

6:11-15 - False Witnesses Before the Council

Before the next study, read Acts 6:1-15. Stephen's speech and death occur in Acts 7.
