OBSERVE THE PASSAGE

1. Compare Acts 5:33 and 5:40. What did the council intend, and what happened instead?

2. What did the council command the apostles to stop doing? (Acts 5:40)

3. What reason does Luke give for the apostles' rejoicing? (Acts 5:41)

UNDERSTAND THE MESSAGE

4. What does Gamaliel urge the council to do? Why does a movement's survival alone fail to establish its truth? (Acts 5:38-39)

5. How can we explain the apostles' joy without minimizing their pain? (Acts 5:40-41)

6. How often and where did they teach? What was their message? Which detail challenges you? (Acts 5:42)

RESPOND AND APPLY

7. A woman declines a hurtful conversation and a friend mocks her faith. What could a faithful response with grace and wise boundaries look like? (Acts 5:40-42)

8. Where do you need courage and compassion together in a relationship? How can your response point to Jesus?

9. My next faithful step this week, when I will begin, and someone who can pray with me:

LIFE GROUP REFLECTION

Reflect on courageous witness, wise boundaries, and mutual care. You may share, listen, or pass. Keep another person's private details confidential.

10. What insight from another woman helped you understand this passage? How could you support someone whose faithfulness has become difficult?

NEXT CHAPTER: ACTS 6

A Growing Church and a Faithful Witness

6:1 - When Growth Reveals Neglect

6:2-4 - Prayer, the Word, and Shared Service

6:5-7 - Faithful Servants and a Growing Word

6:8-10 - Stephen Speaks with Wisdom and Power

6:11-15 - False Witnesses Before the Council

Before the next study, read Acts 6:1-15. Stephen's speech and death occur in Acts 7.
