KINGDOM MEN

OBSERVE THE PASSAGE

1. What was happening to the disciples, and whose need was being missed? (Acts 6:1)

2. What did the apostles ask the congregation to do? List the qualifications. (Acts 6:2-3)

3. What responsibilities would the apostles continue? How does Acts 5:42 help explain them? (Acts 6:4)

KINGDOM MEN

UNDERSTAND THE MESSAGE

4. What does the language of service in verses 1, 2, and 4 show about practical care and the Word?

5. How were the seven chosen and commissioned? Why does the order of qualification and laying on hands matter? (Acts 6:3,5-6)

6. What three developments does Luke report? What should we avoid promising when we apply this verse? (Acts 6:7)

KINGDOM MEN

RESPOND AND APPLY

7. A man accepts responsibility for checking on a member but repeatedly misses the agreed contact. When the concern is raised, he points to his ministry title. How should the group respond? (Acts 6:1-6)

8. Where can you help someone receive dependable care while honoring your actual responsibilities?

9. My next faithful step this week, when I will begin, and someone who can pray with me:

KINGDOM MEN

LIFE GROUP REFLECTION

Reflect on dependable care in daily responsibilities and relationships. You may share, listen, or pass. Keep another person's private details confidential.

10. What insight from another man helped you see shared responsibility more clearly? How can you encourage one another to serve faithfully?

TODAY'S CENTRAL TRUTH

Christ's people share responsibility so practical care receives attention and the ministry of the Word continues.

NEXT WEEK | MOVEMENT 2

Wisdom They Could Not Resist

Acts 6:8-10

Before the next study, reread Acts 6:8-10. Notice Stephen's character, his witness, and the wisdom and the spirit by which he speaks. Movement 3 will examine Acts 6:11-15. Stephen's speech and death occur in Acts 7.
