OBSERVE THE PASSAGE

Read Acts 6:1–15 for context, then focus on verses 8–10. Pause or replay the recording whenever you need more time to read, reflect, or write.

Q1. Compare Acts 6:3 and 6:5. What words connect the qualifications for the seven to Luke's description of Stephen?

Q2. Compare Acts 6:5 and 6:8. What carries over in Stephen's description? What does Luke add about his power and what he does among the people?

Q3. Read Acts 6:9. Who rose to dispute with Stephen? What does Luke tell you about who they were, and what detail does he leave open about where in Jerusalem they argued?

UNDERSTAND THE MESSAGE

Q4. State Acts 6:8–10 in one sentence in everyday language. Include what Stephen did and what happened when people challenged him.

Q5. In Acts 6:10, who does “they” refer to, and what could they not resist? What does verse 11 show they did next?

Q6. Which verse helps you connect Stephen’s speech to the Holy Spirit: Acts 6:5, Acts 6:3, or Acts 4:8? Explain your choice. Then compare Luke 21:12–15 with Acts 6:10. What words or ideas echo Jesus’ promise?

RESPOND AND APPLY

Q7. Someone asks why you trust Jesus after a difficult experience. How could you listen carefully and answer honestly? Write two or three sentences you could actually say.

My response

Read Luke 21:13–15 again. Consider how Jesus describes an occasion for testimony and the wisdom he promises his followers.

Q8. One faithful next step

Think of one conversation this week where you might have an opportunity to speak about Jesus. What will you pray for, and what could you say?

My action / when I will begin / what I will ask God for

REFLECTION AND NEXT WEEK

Stephen, full of faith and power, does wonders and signs among the people, and those who dispute with him cannot withstand the wisdom and Spirit by which he speaks.

What insight from the recording helped me understand the passage?

My question for follow-up, prayer response, or personal notes

NEXT WEEK | MOVEMENT 3

False Witness, Faithful Witness

Acts 6:11–15

Read Acts 6:11–15. Notice how the dispute gives way to accusations and how Stephen comes to stand before the council. Pay attention to what Luke reports people did and what they claim Stephen said.
