YOU CANNOT IMPRISON GOD'S WORD

Lesson • Acts 5:17–25

Name: _____ Date: _____

“Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”

— Acts 5:20, KJV

WHAT HAPPENED?

- 1 ARREST — Leaders put the apostles in prison. (17–18)
- 2 RELEASE — An angel of the Lord opened the doors and brought them out. (19)
- 3 COMMAND — The angel told them to speak to the people. (20)
- 4 TEACHING — They entered the temple early and taught. Later, the leaders learned where they were. (21–25)

THE BIG TRUTH

God released His witnesses so they could keep speaking about Jesus. Their freedom served His mission.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR US?

Courage has a purpose: helping people hear about Jesus. We can speak honestly and respectfully, even when we feel nervous. We can admit when we do not know an answer and ask a trusted adult for help.

Faith does not guarantee that every hardship ends immediately. If a conversation becomes threatening, move toward safety and tell a trusted adult.

REFLECT

Why does the command matter as much as the open prison?

2 CHOOSE A RESPONSE

A classmate asks, “Why do you believe in Jesus?” Another student starts making jokes. Practice a respectful answer with a willing partner, or write your response.

My two-sentence answer:

One sentence that sets a respectful boundary:

You do not need every answer. If a conversation becomes hurtful or threatening, stop and ask a trusted adult for help.

3 MY NEXT FAITHFUL STEP

Choose one: answer a sincere question, encourage a friend, or ask a trusted adult a question about Jesus.

This week I will:
