WORD FROM OUR PASTOR, DR. SKAAR

You prayed. I went. God blessed. I am looking forward to sharing some of the things I experienced in Ukraine and the relationships that were built with the believers in Bethlehem Baptist Church. They are a strong, healthy church, and their commitment to share the gospel, stand firm in Christ, and minister to others in the midst of a war against their nation was inspiring. I'm grateful that our Lord has allowed us to be a sister church to share encouragement with them and them with us.

In that encouragement, we will begin our simultaneous fall campaign called "The Seven Loves" in two weeks, on Oct. 11. I want to encourage everyone to participate fully by being in a small group on Sundays or a Home group during the week, and attending every worship service during the campaign if you are physically able. Bethlehem Baptist will be going through the same materials each week. Together, we will grow more in Christ and encourage one another to "Love God. Love People!"

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
