Summer Meals and Snacks for Kids

Through SUN Meals, kids of all ages can eat meals and snacks during the summer at no cost at schools, parks, and other neighborhood locations. SUN Meals may have a different name where you live, but the benefit is the same: nutritious meals for kids and teens in the summer when school is out.

Every child aged 18 and under can enjoy SUN Meals, some rural communities now offer SUN Meals To-Go, and eligible school-aged children can also receive SUN Bucks.

How to Get SUN Meals

SUN Meals are available to any child aged 18 and under, no application needed. Find meals at schools, parks, and other locations in your community using the USDA Summer Meals for Kids Site Finder at <https://www.fns.usda.gov/summer/sunmeals> or you can also text FOOD to 914-342-7744 or call the USDA Hunger Hotline at 1-866-3-HUNGRY.

Have a Safe &
Blessed Summer,
KayLynn
