2 CORINTHIANS 4:7-12

“RENEWAL FOR JARS OF CLAY”

PASTOR DARYL WATTLEY

NCF is going to have its first Easter egg hunt in a few weeks. Egg hunts are a funny thing because the connection to Christianity is not immediately obvious, but I have always argued that you really don't need a reason to give a child a piece of candy! Just do it... with momma's permission. While you would be hard-pressed to find an egg hunt in Scripture, we do find multiple references to jars of clay and pottery. Sometimes, this pottery holds incredible treasure. Other times, the pottery is crushed to pieces. Ironically, what we discover in today's passage is that all Christians are effectively Easter eggs. We are brittle. We are hidden. However, if you have believed in Jesus, you have within you an incredible gift. Every Christian has Jesus and his gospel in their hearts. Jesus has gone hunting for you, and you will never go missing again.

MEDITATION ROMANS 9:21

“Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for honorable use and another for dishonorable use?”
