"A NEW & GRACIOUS ACCOUNTABILITY"
PASTOR DARYL WATTLEY

We live in a world of passwords, security cameras, audits, reviews, logs, and all types of systems that ensure we stay in line. We all know why they are there, but also lament that they are needed. As we have discussed generosity and fairness for the last few weeks, you come to understand that these two concepts can exist for a moment but are hard to maintain over long periods of time. For this reason, until Jesus returns, even the church needs to work hard to hold itself accountable. Moreover, accountability is not just for the average Christian. Church leaders do not require less oversight... they require more because they are responsible for more and are subject to the same temptations as all other Christians. In a beautiful display of humility, in this week's Scripture, the Apostle Paul subjects himself to the same accountability of those he is called to lead and graciously establishes the principle of oversight and accountability in all matters within the church.
