MEDITATION 2 CORINTHIANS 4:7 ESV

"But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us."

SERMON 2 CORINTHIANS 9:10-15 "HARVEST FOR THE CHEERFUL GIVER" PASTOR DARYL WATTLEY

Harvesting is a lot of fun. When my family lived in Delaware, our home was surrounded by farms. There was a corn farm in our backyard, a potato farm in our front yard, a pumpkin farm on the left, and a honey farm on the right. There was food everywhere..

However, what really stood out to me was the workers who did the farming. They worked hard all day. They came from everywhere. The farmhands were housed by the farm, fed by the farm, and even kept safe by the farm. There was a whole world to it, and it was amazing to watch year in and year out.

Likewise, Christians are farmhands in the total and complete care of a loving God, the ultimate Lord of the Harvest. Therefore, because our God is so generous, we too can become cheerful givers. Over the last two sermons, we have discovered the process of becoming a cheerful giver. The cheerful giver must plan and prepare. The cheerful giver is also called to sow by faith. In this third and final sermon from chapter nine, we are taught what to expect from the harvest God provides for His faithful saints.
