MEDITATION MATTHEW 23:5 ESV

"They do all their deeds to be seen by others. For they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long,"

SERMON 2 CORINTHIANS 10:7-12 "A NEW MEASURE OF AUTHORITY" PASTOR DARYL WATTLEY

No matter the situation, one of the most important questions one can ask is, "Who is in charge around here?" Whether at home, work, school, or in battle, there is a great deal of comfort in simply knowing who has the final word and who is ultimately responsible. Who is to blame? Who gets the credit? Who does the discipline? Who signs the checks? After a year as Senior Pastor here at NCF, this question is more important to me than ever before.

In this week's passage, the Corinthians had come a long way, and their change was remarkable. However, a loud minority remained who continued to challenge Paul's authority as an apostle. Incredibly, Paul's reaction is not to exalt his God-given authority as leader, but to bring everyone to the center as equal in Christ. A Christian leader is a leader amongst equals... not a dictator amongst servants. As we are called to lead, the church is to be reminded of Jesus' example of being called to serve and not to be served.
