ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them one thing you like about them—a trait that you wish you had or were better at.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: “What’s one thing about yourself that you love? Something unique that sets you apart from other people?” (If anyone has trouble thinking of something, have others offer positive suggestions.)

Drive Time

While on the go this week, ask your middle schooler: “What is something wonderfully unique about someone else you know? In our family, a friend, a classmate, a neighbor, etc.?”

Bed Time

For this age group, standing out includes a lot of social risks. Pray that both you and your child will see the value in the things that make you unique.
