Questions or desired studies,

Plan of Salvation

Hear-Romans 10:17

So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Must Believe - Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Must Confess Jesus is The Son of The Living God- Confess - Matthew 10:32-33

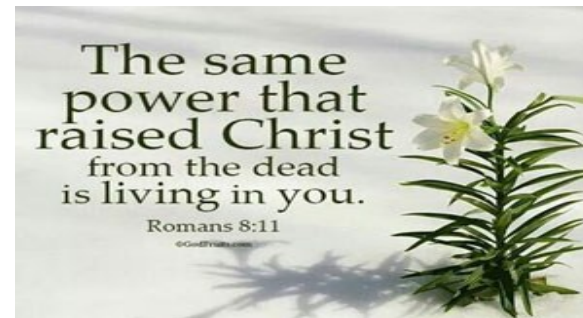

“Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Repent - Luke 13:3

I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Baptism– Acts 2:38

Then Peter said to them, “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

“He Got Up, Have You?”

Sermon preparation is the highlight of my week. There is a unique joy in watching everything come together—when study, prayer, and reflection form a clear message that points us to God’s truth. Last week’s message, “From the Garden to the Cross” was especially joyful to prepare, as I was reminded of something powerful: the Bible is not a random collection of events, but a carefully woven story. From Genesis to the empty tomb, God has been revealing His plan of redemption.

The sermon revealed Jesus is not just introduced in the New Testament—He is anticipated all throughout the Old. In Genesis 3:15, He is the promised seed. In Genesis 22, He is the ram in the thicket. In Exodus 16, He is the true bread from heaven. In Numbers 21, He is the One lifted up. In Leviticus 16, He is our sacrifice and our scapegoat. In 1 Samuel 17 He is the weapon that was not in David’s hand. In Genesis 50:20 He is the forgiveness we all need and desire foreshadowed in Joseph.

All of it points to the cross—where Jesus bore our sin—and the empty tomb—where He declared victory. This is not coincidence. This is God’s plan. I encourage each of us here at Long Creek when we read our Bible, don’t just see stories—see the Savior.

Long Creek, we are not just called to understand the story—we are called to step into it. Last Sunday, we celebrated the greatest truth in history—Jesus got up. The tomb is empty. Death is defeated. Hope is alive but the question now is what does that mean for us?

Over the next five weeks, I invite each of us to embark together on a journey of exploring:

“Because He Got Up”

This series will challenge us to move beyond celebration and step into transformation:

- Live a New Life (Romans 6:4)
 - I Must Work (John 8:4)
- Live with Power (Philippians 3:10)
- Live with Purpose (Matthew 28:19–20)
- Shine Your Light (Matthew 5:16)

Words of Encouragement: My prayer as your minister is that we will not only celebrate what Jesus did on the cross, but that we will feel it, live it, and walk in its power every single day. He got up—now it’s your turn.

God Bless You!
Minister Kelvin L. Briggs
