Plan of Salvation

Hear-Romans 10:17

So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Must Believe - Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Must Confess Jesus is The Son of The Living God- Confess - Matthew 10:32-33

“Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Repent - Luke 13:3

I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Baptism– Acts 2:38

Then Peter said to them, “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

“He Got Up, So You Can Live In Victory: Are You?”

Last Sunday was truly a great day of worship and fellowship as we welcomed over 235 in attendance for our Friends and Family Day celebration. What a blessing it was to see so many gathered together, united in praise, love, and a shared desire to draw closer to God. The message challenged us to look honestly at our walk with Christ—to move beyond almost believing, almost obeying, and almost following Him. The cross reminds us that Jesus did not stop short and neither should we. Now, as we gather this Resurrection Sunday, we celebrate more than an empty tomb—we celebrate a living Savior who GOT UP from the grave.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is not just a moment in history; it is a present-day reality that brings life-changing benefits to every believer. I would like to share three benefits of The Resurrection to encourage each of us:

1. The Resurrection Gives Us Victory Over Sin: The cross paid the price, but the resurrection proved the payment was accepted. “He was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.” (Romans 4:25). Jesus’ resurrection not only declares that we are no longer bound by sin it also declares we can let go of the guilt that it brings. What once held us captive no longer has authority over us; therefore, you don’t have to live in shame defined by your past failures. This is why I boldly share my past; I want all who hear and see me preach and teach know that it is only by the grace of God and the power of the blood of Jesus that I am what I am. He got up, so I can lay down all the weakness, shame and guilt of my past.

2. The Resurrection Gives Us Power for Daily Living: The same power that raised Jesus from the dead is now at work in us according to Philippians 3:10 That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death.” What Jesus did on the cross was not just power for one day and one time. It is power for all who place their faith in him power to overcome temptation, endure trials, and to keep going when life gets hard. Whenever you’re facing—pain, sickness, brokenness, or discouragement—the resurrection reminds us that no situation is beyond God’s power. Romans 8:-11 echos this power “But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.”

3. The Resurrection Gives Us Hope Beyond the Grave: The resurrection is our assurance that death is not the end as Peter so beautifully shared-1:3 “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” (1 Pet 1:3). Jesus reaffirms this assurance in John 14:19- “Because I live, you will live also”

Closing Encouragement: Long Creek let us enjoy this time reflecting on the Resurrection of The Lord Jesus Christ and know that because He Got Up we can face tomorrow knowing:

One day, every tear will be wiped away.
One day, death will be swallowed up in victory.
One day, we too will rise.
The grave is not our final destination—glory is.

God Bless You!
