Plan of Salvation

Hear-Romans 10:17

So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Must Believe - Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Must Confess Jesus is The Son of The Living God- Confess - Matthew 10:32-33

“Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Repent - Luke 13:3

I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Baptism— Acts 2:38

Then Peter said to them, “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

of the Family of God at Long Creek

“Thank You Mothers of Long Creek”

One of the great joys of our Sunday and Wednesday gatherings is watching our children enthusiastically arrive to Long Creek. Seeing their excitement as they run into the building particularly the playtime in the Family Life Building between morning worship service and the extended playtime Wednesday night after bible class. Observing their growth, knowledge, and even their developing independence is a blessing to witness. Each time I see it, I am reminded and thankful knowing that kind of growth doesn't just happen. It starts at home with teachings from committed faithful MOTHERS- "My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not your mother's teaching." (Prov 6:20)

Just like young Timothy, whose sincere faith first lived in his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice (2 Timothy 1:5), what we are seeing in our children today is the fruit of faithful, intentional spiritual parenting. At Long Creek, we pause with full hearts to honor THE MOTHERS among us—women who are shaping lives, building faith, and leaving a legacy that stretches far beyond what we can see. Motherhood is not one moment—it is a journey. And at every stage of that journey, we see God at work.

To our expectant mothers, thank you for carrying not just life, but hope. Even now, before your child takes their first breath, you are already nurturing purpose. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you" (Jeremiah 1:5). God is already writing their story—and He chose you to help tell it.

To our mothers of toddlers and young children, we see you. The long days, the constant attention, the unseen sacrifices. You are planting seeds in soil that may feel chaotic—but it is fertile ground. Every prayer, every song, every correction in love is shaping a heart for God. "Train up a child in the way he should go..." (Proverbs 22:6).

To our mothers raising school-aged children and teens, yours may be the most stretching years. You are not only caregivers—you are counselors, disciplers, and examples. You are helping your children navigate a world pulling at them from every direction. Your consistency, your standards, and your faith are anchors. "Let no one despise your youth, but be an example..." (1 Timothy 4:12).

To our mothers of college students and young adults, this stage requires a different kind of strength—the strength to release while still guiding. You have sown into them for years, and now you trust God with what you've planted. And what a blessing it is to see seeds begin to sprout into independent faith.

To our mothers of grown children—professionals, parents, and leaders themselves, we thank you for your endurance. You are now witnessing the fruit of years of prayer, correction, sacrifice, and love. What you poured into your children is now being poured into the world.

Closing Thought: Long Creek one of the reason that we are so richly blessed is because of the mothers among us. As we continue to move through the year in our theme of “Being the Light of the World” (Matthew 5:14-16), we recognize that many of our first glimpses of that light came through a mother. Through your words, your example, and your faith, you have helped your children see what it means to shine. So, to THE MOTHERS of Long Creek we say thank you May God continue to strengthen your hands, renew your spirit, and remind you that your labor in the Lord is never in vain.

God Bless You!

HEALING WORKSHOP #4
 FAITHFUL IN REAL LIFE: FOLLOWING GOD WHEN LIFE BE LIFE'ING!
 Life can be unpredictable, overwhelming, and real, but our faith doesn't have to waver. In this workshop, we'll have honest conversations about navigating everyday challenges while staying grounded in God. From temptation to perimenopause, from pain to learning how to control what we can, this session will equip you with practical and spiritual tools to remain faithful in every season.
