Plan of Salvation

Hear-Romans 10:17

So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Must Believe - Hebrews 11:6

But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Must Confess Jesus is The Son of The Living God- Confess - Matthew 10:32-33

“Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Repent - Luke 13:3

I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.

Baptism- Acts 2:38

Then Peter said to them, “Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The Weekly Newsletter

of the Family of God at Long Creek

“Grace Has Room”

As Long Creek continues to grow through our television ministry, social media outreach, and increased exposure in the community, I believe there is an important question all of us should prayerfully consider:

Are we truly a place that welcomes everyone? Do we truly receive everyone with love and grace?

Not just those who appear to have it all together, but the broken, the hurting, the lost, the struggling, the homeless, the addicted, the lonely, and the spiritually weary. Hebrews 13:2 reminds us, “Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels.”

It is easy to become excited about welcoming a new family that appears polished, successful, and low maintenance. On the other hand, what's our excitement level for the person whose pain is obvious? The one whose life is visibly messy? The one who may require patience, compassion, resources, encouragement, and grace?

Jesus did not only die for the polished. He died for the broken too.

The church must never become a museum for people who appear perfect. It must remain a hospital for souls in need of healing. Jesus taught in Matthew 7:12, “Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them.” In other words, treat people the way you would want someone to treat your own child, spouse, parent, or loved one if they were the hurting person walking through the doors.

Romans 15:7 reminds us: “Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.” The question is not simply, “Are people visiting Long Creek?” The greater question is: “When they arrive, do they truly feel the grace of Jesus here?”

May grace abound in us as a congregation. After all, every one of us stands before God today only because somebody showed us patience, compassion, mercy, and grace. May Long Creek always be a place where truth is preached boldly, but where grace is also extended generously emulating the Lord Jesus in showing grace (1 John 1:14).

Closing Thought: This week, I encourage each of us to ask: What is one thing I can personally do better to help hurting and broken people feel welcomed, loved, and received at Long Creek?

God Bless You!
