

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE

November 15, 2026 | 10:30AM

WELCOME TO NEW HOPE!

We are so glad you're here today. New Hope Presbyterian is a Bible-believing congregation seeking to worship and serve God in response to the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit. We believe gathered worship is the central event in the church's life together: it restores and shapes our whole lives in the pattern of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We also recognize that for some of you this is the first time you you've attended a more structured service of worship that calls for you to participate so actively. Everything you need is both printed in this Worship Guide and on the screen. We encourage you to turn off the autopilot and join us in vibrantly and enthusiastically praising God, confessing, singing, and hearing the Scriptures. Worship is for all of God's people. Enjoy the service!

We have hearing aid assist devices available in the Narthex. See a greeter.

Public wi-fi network: "Sanctuary."

WELCOME

PRELUDE: Lord, We Give Thanks

Mark Patterson

Lord, we give thanks to you this day:
Thanks for the blessings you give us.
Lord, we give thanks to you this day:
Alleluia, Alleluia! Lord, we give thanks.

Lord, we sing praise to you this day,
Praise for the gifts of creation.
Lord, we sing praise to you this day,
Alleluia, Alleluia! Lord, we sing praise.

Lord, we lift up our voices
To sin a grateful song of praise.
Lord, we come now before you
That we may glorify your name.

Lord, we give thanks to you this day:
Thanks for the blessings you give us.
Lord, we give thanks to you this day:
Alleluia, Alleluia! Lord, we give thanks.

CALL TO WORSHIP

1 Chronicles 16:34-36

34 Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever! 35
Say also: "Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather and deliver us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise. 36 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!"

SERMON NOTES:

SERMON REVIEW

"Two Paths, One Way" (Matthew 7:13-14)

Last week, Senior Pastor Richard Burguet prefaced the text by noting we're all on a road going somewhere. The only issue is knowing where we are going…heaven or hell. One—the wider gate and broader road—is the path of self-righteousness which promotes living our lives as we please but only leads to destruction and eternal separation from God. The other—the small gate and narrow road—is the path of divine righteousness which leads to eternal life in heaven where there is grace and freedom in the truth. The narrow gate admits and protects while the wider gate leads to destruction. From the world's standpoint, most believe that we all go to heaven when we die, while others believe good works will get us to heaven, and some believe there is no heaven or hell, there's just nothing. While the broader road may seem happy and tempting, it's not. We cannot allow sin and temptation to fool us and lead us from the narrow road because it only leads to death and eternal separation from God. The narrow road is more difficult which is why many will never choose it. But it's far better because it leads to Jesus the gatekeeper. For believers following Jesus, we must put sin to death in our lives to avoid falling back into the ways of the world. To be a disciple of Christ we need to be fully committed to him and to having a living relationship with him. God's way is not up to a majority opinion. Left to our own devices we will never satisfy God or earn our way into heaven. It can only be achieved through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and the only way to God the Father where we will find salvation and eternal peace (John 14:6). We all need to examine the state of our hearts and ask ourselves if we are fully committed to Jesus.

PRAY THIS WEEK:

MISSIONS PARTNERS: For the staff and volunteers of Life's Choices Women's Clinic to have God's peace, wisdom, and grace while they minister to clients struggling with crisis pregnancies.

CFL PRESBYTERY: For Seven Rivers Villages Mission Church in Wildwood and pastors Stephen Speaks and Steven Brooks.

NEW HOPE: For our Nativity preparations as we plan for bringing the Gospel to hundreds of people in our community, and that this year's interactive additions will allow us to make personal connections with people.

LAKESIDE COVENANT: Praise that our daughter church, Lakeside Covenant is healthy and growing and training additional officers.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH OF KHERSON, UKRAINE: For God's wisdom for Vova and the other pastors helping them coordinate and prepare for potential evacuation and resettlement of some of the church members. Pray for God's grace and wisdom for each member to trust God to help them make the best decision. The church continues to meet for worship. Please continue to pray for their safety and an end to the war.
