

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE
September 20, 2026 | 10:30AM

W E L C O M E T O N E W H O P E !

We are so glad you found your way here today. To our members and returning visitors, welcome back! To those of you who are new, welcome! There are a couple of things you might like to know.

First, New Hope Presbyterian is a Bible-believing congregation seeking to worship and serve God in response to the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Second, we believe gathered worship is the central event in the church's life together: it restores and shapes our whole lives in the pattern of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We also recognize that for some of you this is the first time (or the first time in a long time) in a more structured service of worship that calls for you to participate so actively. Relax! Everything you need is both printed in the Worship Guide you are holding and up on the screen. We encourage you to turn off the auto-pilot and join us in vibrantly and enthusiastically praising God, confessing, singing, and hearing the Scriptures. Worship is for all of God's people. Enjoy the service!

SERMON REVIEW
"A New Vision Of God" (Ezekiel 1)

Last week Dr. Ben Shaw, author and teaching elder in the PCA, said these 28 verses have had numerous interpretations, including the description of an alien space vehicle. Dr. Shaw said what 30-year-old Ezekiel saw alongside the Kebar River while exiled from Jerusalem was God opening the heavens to reveal his providence, power and presence. Ezekiel gives us this description because he is overwhelmed by God's power and majesty that he tries making human comparisons to describe the indescribable. Like Moses, Ezekiel was humbled with the true vision of God's inscrutable glory (Exodus 33:18-23). Even though it was hard for Ezekiel to believe in God while exiled in Babylon, he learned to trust where he was by God's providence and for God's purposes. He learned that Israel's exile was good because God had something better for him and the Israelites (Jeremiah 24). We need to understand that God has us where we are because he has people he wants us to minister to. We have to trust God's purposes for us and know that he is powerful and in control. Like Ezekiel, we sometimes see God as too small rather than all powerful. God opened the heavens for Ezekiel to work out his purposes. When God shows up in our lives in an unusual way he is not bound by our thinking. He is revealing his presence and glory in his way (John 1:14). Even now we are currently in exile awaiting the new city of God (Revelation 21) so that we will see and experience his glory and presence, now and forever. As believers we have the privilege of experiencing his glory and indwelling Holy Spirit. God's power via the Holy Spirit directs us daily which is a certainty for all who trust in Christ.
