

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICE
September 27, 2026 | 10:30AM

W E L C O M E T O N E W H O P E !

We are so glad you found your way here today. To our members and returning visitors, welcome back! To those of you who are new, welcome! There are a couple of things you might like to know.

First, New Hope Presbyterian is a Bible-believing congregation seeking to worship and serve God in response to the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Second, we believe gathered worship is the central event in the church's life together: it restores and shapes our whole lives in the pattern of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We also recognize that for some of you this is the first time (or the first time in a long time) in a more structured service of worship that calls for you to participate so actively. Relax! Everything you need is both printed in the Worship Guide you are holding and up on the screen. We encourage you to turn off the auto-pilot and join us in vibrantly and enthusiastically praising God, confessing, singing, and hearing the Scriptures. Worship is for all of God's people. Enjoy the service!

God Is Over All

1. God, You hold the world in hand, moun-tains move at Your com-mand.
 2. God, You saw the sin in me for You reign in maj-es-ty.
 3. God a-bove all time and space, You are nev-er far a-way.

Yet, my needs You will pro-vide as a fa-ther loves his child.
 Je-sus died to make me clean, Je-sus rose to set me free.
 For in Je-sus I can see how You are a friend to me.

God is o-ver all, God is o-ver all.

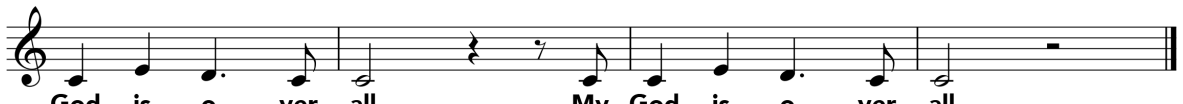

I will sing for it is well, my God is o-ver all.

God is o-ver all. God is o-ver all,

God is o-ver all. I will sing for it is well, my

"Fasting With The Right Motives" (Matthew 6:16-18)

Last week Senior Pastor Richard Burguet opened by asking: "Why do we do the things we do?" And "What prompts us to do them?" Only Jesus knows why because he loves us deeply and intimately. As with giving and praying, Jesus wants to know what's at the heart of our motive for fasting. What drives our behavior? He wants us to do what he expects of us. Because we're in the process of sanctification we won't always do what we should. We must examine our motives and do what pleases God by expressing our gratitude. But we must be careful that when we do the right thing not to turn it into an idol. Jesus is encouraging us as his disciples to avoid outward displays that bring praise to ourselves, and to avoid trying to manipulate God. Doing things in private, including fasting, demonstrates our trust in and reliance on God and his grace. Fasting should be a time of worship and spiritual reset, and is part of our discipleship and growth in Christ. It is a spiritual abstinence from eating, drinking, and sexual activity, and should be a time of mourning, grief and repentance. There are four types of fasting: 1. Normal—refrain from all food when preparing for a significant life event; 2. Partial—refrain from eating certain foods for a period of time (Daniel 1:8-16); 3. Absolute—refrain from eating all food and drink (Acts 9:9); and 4. Private and corporate—as a people for a specific holy day to humble our souls and demonstrate humility (Leviticus 16:29-34). Jesus is not saying we must fast but that we will as a means of devotion and reflecting on all Christ has done. We fast to please our heavenly Father and show that we have a hunger for him and him alone. Our spiritual appetite should be greater than our fleshly desires. For in heaven there will be no more hunger but feasting in the presence of Christ (Luke 22:16).
