Bible Story: Prayer- Matthew 7:7-11

Big Idea: God hears our prayers.

The Win: Kids who can identify and take their next step of discipleship by embracing a preschooler's physical needs or engaging an elementary kid in things that interest them.

Wednesday Share:

Tonight during Impact Kids, we looked at Matthew 7:7-11. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says to keep on asking, seeking, and knocking in prayer. When we pray, God will give us good gifts, just as a father gives good gifts to provide for his children. Treasure the earnest prayers of your kids and their desire to pray about anything and everything. Continue to help your kids hold onto the earnest desire to go to God in prayer whenever they need something—or just to talk with their friend!

Dig In to the Bible

Read: Matthew 7:7-11

In This Passage: In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus says to keep on asking, seeking, and knocking in prayer. When we pray, God will give us good gifts, just as a father gives good gifts to provide for his children.

Bible Point: God hears our prayers.

Summary Verse: "So don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today's trouble is enough for today" (Matthew 6:34).

Dig Deeper

You'll Be Teaching: God hears our prayers. Young kids tend to pray more automatically, but somewhere in childhood that easy faith dwindles and prayer becomes more of a last resort. Help kids hold onto the earnest desire to go to God in prayer whenever they need something—or just to talk with their friend!

Think About: What kinds of things do you talk with God about? What other kinds of things could you talk with God about?

Dig In to Prayer

Ask God to show your kids how eager he is to be their friend—to talk to them and to hear from them.
