IN DISCIPLESHIP

October 21, 2026- Disciples disagree with grace.

Bible-Romans 14:13-23- The Law of Love

Disciples build relationships that point each other to Jesus.

Read: Romans 14:13-23

Highlight: Romans 14:19

Reflect: Paul teaches believers to stop judging one another and instead focus on living in a way that helps others follow Jesus. We should be careful that our choices do not cause another believer to stumble, choosing love and peace over insisting on our own freedoms.

- Are there areas where I am prioritizing my personal preferences or freedoms over the spiritual well-being of others?
- How can I use my influence to encourage faith and unity rather than creating obstacles for someone else's walk with Christ?
- In my relationships, am I known more for being right or for showing love, grace, and consideration for others?

Pray: Father God, thank You for Your Spirit at work in our lives. Thank You for a faith community that gives each other the benefit of the doubt and trusts each other. Help us to use this trust to help others love and follow You. When we disagree, help us to respond to understand and extend grace. In Jesus' name, Amen!

Connect: Sometimes friends, siblings, or classmates see things differently than we do. Not every disagreement is about right and wrong, so instead of arguing or getting upset, we can ask questions, listen carefully, and try to understand why the other person thinks the way they do.

When we still don't agree, we can choose grace. Grace means treating others with kindness, respect, and love, even when we have different opinions. As followers of Jesus, we can show the Fruit of the Spirit by listening well, speaking kindly, and valuing people more than winning an argument.
