EXODUS

THE GOD WHO REDEEMS HIS PEOPLE

The background features a stylized, layered landscape of rolling hills. The hills are rendered in various shades of orange, from light tan to deep, dark brown. Interspersed among these orange hills are sections of a muted, dusty blue color. The overall effect is a sense of depth and texture, reminiscent of a desert or a rugged mountain range. A small, dark silhouette of a person is visible on a ridge in the middle ground, providing a sense of scale.

What is the dress code?

Why the emphasis on dress?

The dress of the high priest is designed to display the beauty and glory of God, which points us to the holiness of God.

The background consists of several overlapping, wavy, organic shapes in shades of blue and orange. The blue shapes have a subtle, textured pattern, while the orange shapes are more solid in color. The overall effect is a layered, abstract composition.
