

The room where people meet to worship is called a sanctuary. Sanctuary also means a safe place where you can go if you are afraid.

Draw a picture inside the boat of a time when you were afraid.

Pentecost 11

- Today is the 11th Sunday after Pentecost.
- This season is sometimes called ordinary time.
- Pentecost lasts from the end of the Easter season to the beginning of Advent.

Connect the dashed lines to draw the symbol for Pentecost.

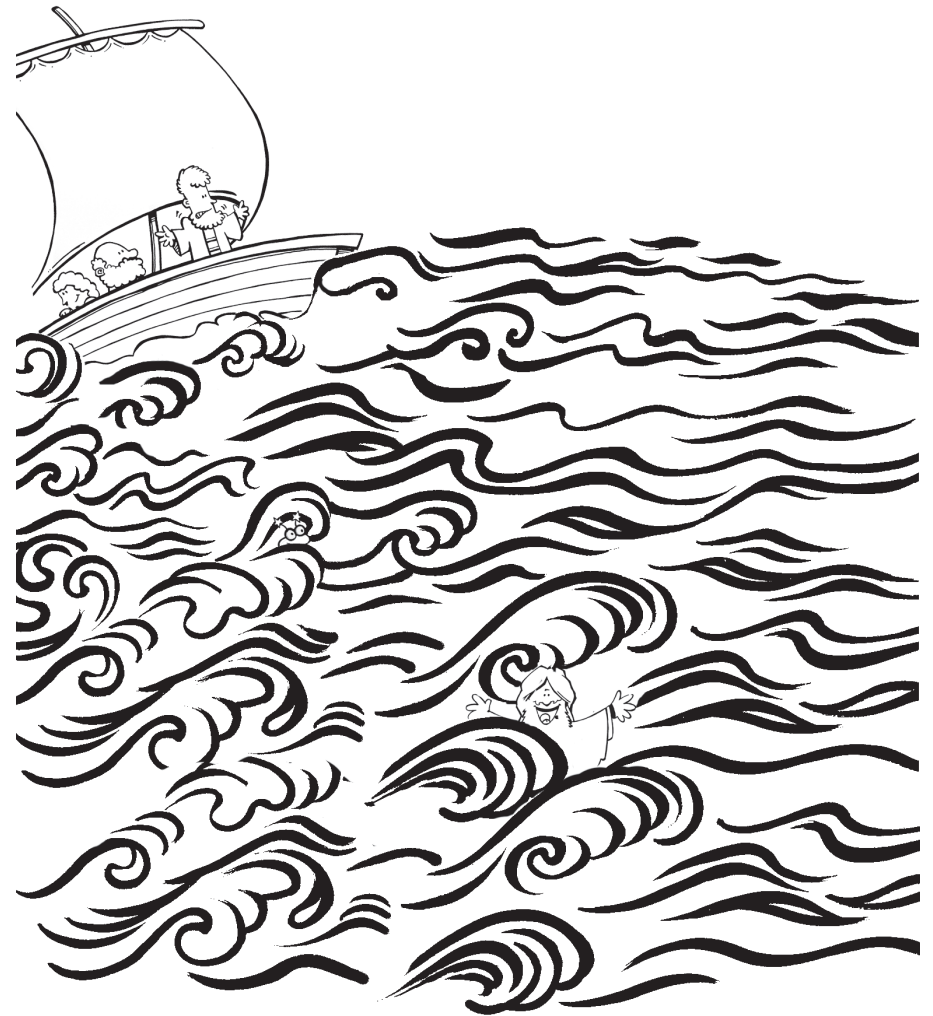

“Come on out, Peter! The water is fine!”

When we keep our eyes on Jesus, we can do great things.

Can you find Jesus in this picture? Can you find Squiggles in this picture? Circle them! Then color in the waves.

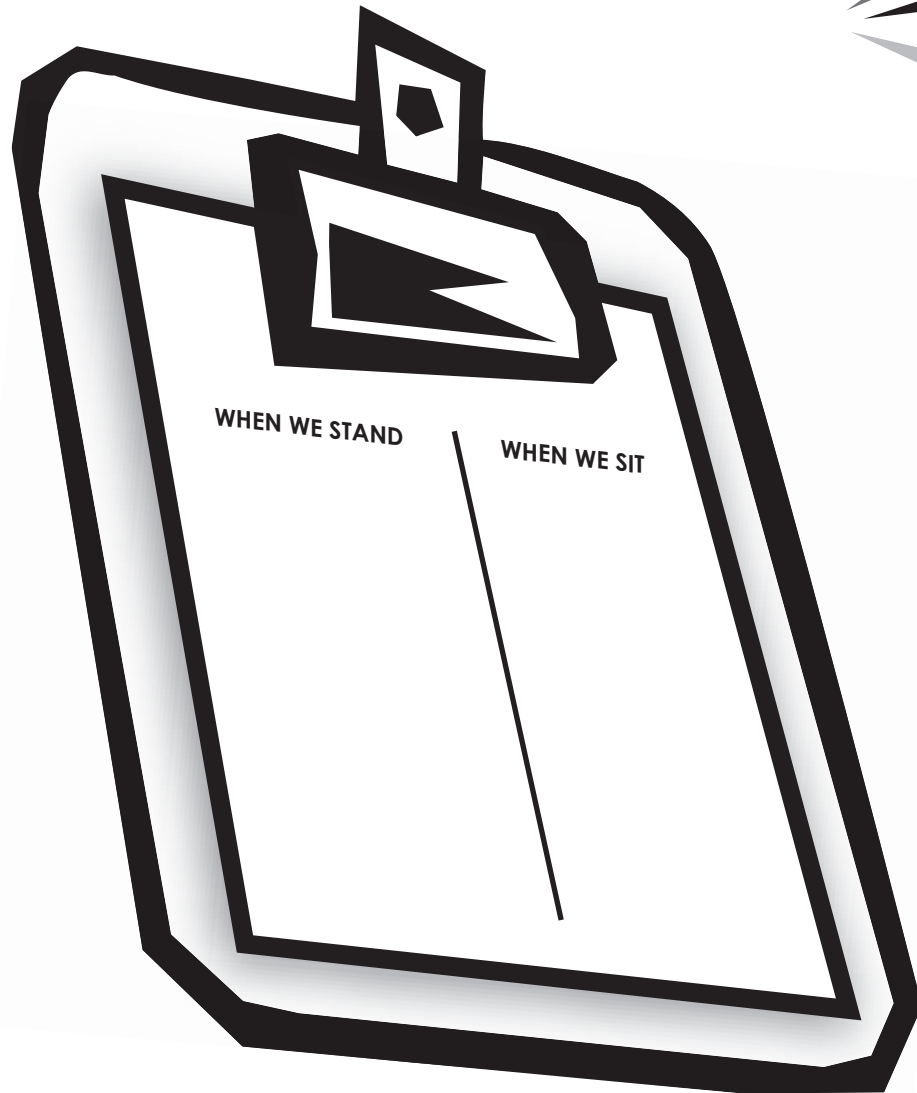

Up and Down

During worship, we stand and sit at different times.

Take notes during worship today of when you sit and when you stand.

Write or draw about it here!

Pentecost 11

- Today is the eleventh Sunday after Pentecost.
- Sometimes the season after Pentecost is called ordinary time.
- This season takes up the ordinary time in our lives between Easter and Advent.

Seasonal Sketches

The season after Pentecost happens in the summer and autumn. Draw what this tree looks like in each of the four seasons. Can you name the church seasons that happen during winter and spring?

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all. Romans 10:12a

Copy the memory verse inside this symbol for peace. Remember that we are all God's children.

Memory Verse

Look It Up!

Today's Gospel story is about a storm and a boat. To read another story about a storm and a boat, look up Matthew 8:23-27.

The sanctuary of many churches is called a nave. Nave is a word that means ship or boat. Look up. Does the ceiling of your worship space look like a boat?

Keep an Eye Out

The Gospel story today teaches us that when we keep our eyes on Jesus we can do great things. Use your eyes to spot the three differences between these two pictures.
