Reformation Sunday

- Today is Reformation Sunday.
- Today we remember the beginning of the Lutheran Church.
- Let's celebrate our history and our future!

Martin Luther is the father of the Lutheran church. Give him some eyes, a nose, and a mouth.

Can you help Martin Luther nail the 95 Theses on the church door?

Reformation Sunday celebrates where we've been and where we're going. Here's what a church might have looked like in Martin Luther's day.

What does your church look like today? Draw it here.

The Face Behind Reformation Sunday

Today, we remember Martin Luther, the man who inspired the creation of the Lutheran Church. Look at the small image and try to draw Martin Luther's face on the picture below.

A Vision for the Future

Martin Luther came up with some powerful ideas for how to make the church better, and the result was the Lutheran church! He wrote down his ideas and nailed them to the church door. Can you think of some ideas that would make your church even better? More singing? Donuts during coffee hour? Serving at the local food shelf every Saturday afternoon?
