Thank you everyone for your prayers. Marilyn Morey has completed the chemotherapy with the best results. She will be monitored with Scans now and is doing very well.

Sincerely, Mark and Joyce Morey

Jeremy and I would like to thank everyone for all the prayers, calls, and many acts of kindness during his recovery from his injuries.

Thank you, Jeremy Black & Laurie Parker.

We are planning a renovation of the auditorium to include replacing the flooring with vinyl tile under seating and carpet in the aisles. A generous donor is funding the project. We are considering replacing pews with chairs rather than repairing and refurbishing existing pews. A sample chair is in the foyer. Please try it out. We would probably want wider chairs but similar to the sample. When connected, the chairs would provide continuous seating similar to pews, would be more comfortable and provide flexibility in arrangement. Your feedback would be appreciated.

Help Needed at Camp

We are renovating a girls' cabin at Camp Leatherwood. If you would like to donate time or money to assist with this, please see Jay Wilkins.

We will be setting up the Giveaway at 9:00 AM on the 26th. If you can help, please let Marilyn Wilkins know. The only donations we can accept at this time are children's clothes.
Thanks to all who donate to the closet.

Use What the Lord Has Given You

"I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name" (Revelation 3:8).

The church at Philadelphia had a "little strength." I've often wondered about the wording of this. They didn't have a lot of strength, but they had some strength. And what was it? Maybe, as compared to others, they were "little" numbers or resources. Maybe it was something else. But whatever it was, they didn't let that stop them from obeying God's will ("have kept my word") and staying faithful to Him and defending His cause ("have not denied my name").

Because they were active, loyal, and doing the best they could with what they had, God blessed them with "an open door, and no one can shut it."
What about you? What about us? We can bemoan what "little strength" we perceive we have, or we can put it to full use for God knowing that He will bring many wonderful opportunities and blessings as a result.

Edd Sterchi

It Doesn't Worry the Devil

The Apostle Peter warned us saying, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Peter 5:8). The metaphor places in our minds an image of an ever-pursuing enemy who is constantly on the lookout for the weak, the lonely, or spiritually sick. But have we ever thought that there may be times when Satan just sits back and watches us going about our busy lives? Please note that it doesn't worry the Devil:
When Christians take a weekend getaway and skip Sunday worship.

- When Christians miss worship to go fishing on Sunday because the forecast said the fish were biting best.
- When Christians miss worship because it's the first week of hunting season.
- When Christian parents allow their kids to play video games during worship.
- When Christians can attend a 3-hour sporting event but can barely sit through an hour of worship.
- When Christians don't consider Sunday and Wednesday church services important enough to attend.
- When Christians watch programs that contain foul language including using the "F" bomb every 15 seconds.
- When Christians can't put down the latest best-selling novel but can't find the time to read the Bible daily.
- When Christians visit a porn site and he certainly doesn't mind if they spend money to use certain features; money that could be given to the Lord.
- When Christians stay up late on Saturday and are late to church on Sunday.
- When Christians sing along with every word to the latest hit song on the radio but don't sing in worship.
- When Christians love the things of the world more than the things of God.

You see, it doesn't worry the devil when Christians practice sinful behavior. It's just less work for him.
